The Governor said he never heard of the prisoner, Sidney Welsh, and never saw William Willetts in his office.
"As for the Osborne case, you know what my position has always been in that matter," the Governor said.

Governor Whitman had always insisted he did not believe Osborne was guilty of the charges made against him, and it was through him that Osborne was reinstated as warden of Sing Sing when the courts failed to convict him. Sing Sing Warden Spends 5 Hours Before Washington County Inquisitors.

relax the stringent quarantine regu-lations which were established at the outbreak of the epidemic. Five its spectors were dismissed at Great Neck yesterday, and the restrictions were initiate among the school teachers at the opening session of the Teachers' Institute. At the close of the conference Dr. Crampton said that if the plans were carried out in full a large amount of attention would be given by school teachers to safeguarding the health of their pupils. The first meeting of the institute will be held next Wednesday in the Washington Irving High School, when Dr. Emerson, Dr. Charles F. Bolduan, director of the Bureau of Public Health Education. yesterday, and the restrictions were removed from the moving picture shows at Islip. Only one health in-spector is now on duty at Babylon. At Fort Totten officers said that the drills of citizen soldiers which were abandoned because of the epidemic will
